Preface

1. Chapter I.
2. Of the State of Nature.
3. Of the State of War.
4. Of Slavery.
5. Of Property.
7. Of Political or Civil Society.
8. Of the Beginning of Political Societies.
9. Of the Ends of Political Society and Government.
10. Of the Forms of a Common-wealth.
11. Of the Extent of the Legislative Power.
15. Of Paternal, Political, and Despotical Power, considered together.
17. Of Usurpation.
18. Of Tyranny.