

Unit 6 Quiz

1. True or False: The Neo-Dada movement began when Marcel Duchamp, one of the most celebrated of the original Dada artists, came to New York in the 1950s and introduced the movement's basic ideas to the likes of Robert Rauschenberg and Jasper Johns.
2. True or False: Minimalist artist Donald Judd claimed to be an amateur mathematician and that his steel constructions and other large-scale works were inspired by his fascination with the study.
3. In your own words, identify 1 painting by Andy Warhol and explain in 2-4 sentences why this particular work is a strong example of Pop art. Make sure to provide a brief description of the work as well.
4. Pop artist Roy Lichtenstein was well known for using a painterly method of applying dots of paint to the canvas, which is similar in approach to which Post-Impressionist artist?
  - A. Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec
  - B. Paul Cézanne
  - C. Vincent van Gogh
  - D. Georges Seurat
5. Following his mastery of such styles as Minimalism and Color Field Painting, Frank Stella began creating what kind of work later in his career?
  - A. Earth art
  - B. Large-scale sculpture
  - C. Fluxus performances
  - D. Self-portraits