

ME403: Assignment 2 “Determining Design Specifications”

Assignment Overview:

1. Determine the needs of your project design and organize them into a chart with rankings of importance.
2. Establish the corresponding project metrics to meet the needs of your design.
3. Create a design specification table which includes the metrics, their corresponding needs, their level of importance within the design, and the target values needed based on benchmarking and customer research.