Read the strip below and then answer the questions:

1. Mark TRUE or FALSE for each one of the statements that follow:
   a) The complete verb phrase in Number 1 should be marked “what’re -- doin’”. (   )
   b) We have an adjective phrase in Number 2. (   )
   c) Number 3 is a noun phrase – not a prepositional one (even though it’s initiated by a preposition). (   )
   d) Number 4 is an adjective phrase. (   )
   e) Number 5 is a prepositional phrase. (   )
   f) Adverbs like “never”, in Number 6, can sometimes be understood as part of a verb phrase – especially those which are positioned between two verbs. (   )
   g) “My rabbit”, in Number 7, is a noun phrase. (   )
   h) “Would”, in Number 8, should never be signalized as part of the verb phrase, for it’s a modal auxiliary only (not a proper verb). (   )
   i) Number 9 is an embedded phrase that holds three prepositional phrases within it. (   )
   j) Despite the fact “poor” is an adjective, what we have in Number 10 is a noun phrase, and not an adjective one. (   )
